

Early Years Education

IN THE LOUIS RIEL SCHOOL DIVISION

- seeks to promote a lifelong love of learning
- encompasses all aspects of development—physical, social, emotional, intellectual and aesthetic
- assesses each child’s development through ongoing observation to improve and individualize instruction
- respects each child’s unique pattern and rate of development
- recognizes that children learn through active involvement and play
- extends each child’s knowledge and experience through meaningful activities
- understands that children represent their knowledge in various ways
- values each child’s cultural heritage and identity
- encourages and supports a partnership between home and school

Components of the LRSD Early Years Program:

A. Social and Emotional Development is enhanced when children:

- develop a positive self image
  - develop independence
  - cooperate
  - socialize
  - take risks
  - participate
- ▶ Children display these actions when they are valued as individuals and when they believe they are successful.

B. Language Development is enhanced when children have opportunities to:

- experience
  - view
  - dramatize
  - communicate
  - interact
  - reflect
- ▶ Children develop literacy through rich experiences in listening, speaking, reading and writing.

C. Thinking occurs when children:

- discover
  - experiment
  - compare
  - organize
  - predict
  - make choices
- ▶ Thinking develops when children engage in various activities, such as exploring objects and events and manipulating ideas.

D. Physical Development is enhanced when children:

- move
  - understand basic physical needs
  - eat healthy foods
  - acquire body awareness
  - manipulate objects
- ▶ Through participation in various activities, children acquire attitudes, skills and knowledge for safe and healthful living.

E. Aesthetic Development is enhanced when children have opportunities to express themselves through:

- art
  - drama
  - music
  - dance
  - writing
- ▶ Aesthetic education is concerned with the creation, expression and examination of personal meaning. Aesthetic education helps children to respond and create in a variety of ways, and to value artistic and aesthetic endeavors.

F. Partnerships in education include:

- children
  - parents and guardians
  - extended families and caregivers
  - special community supports
  - the school team:
    - teachers
    - administrators
    - support staff
- for children who need them
