

J.H. Bruns announcements are intended for current students and parents.

Students looking for announcements can log in to their school My Site.

Parents are asked to please log on to your Parent Portal to view the daily announcements. (If you have not activated your Parent Portal, please click here for instructions on how to access your Parent Portal account).

If you are having issues with the initial login to the parent portal, please contact the board office for assistance.